

Welch to hold a Monday press conference on economic instability

Friday, 19 September 2008 16:56

---

Washington, D.C. - Rep. Peter Welch will hold a press conference Monday morning, September 22 to discuss the ongoing instability of the nation's financial markets and issues raised by the Bush Administration's response. Welch will also discuss the upcoming House Oversight and Government Reform Committee hearings on the crisis. Those hearings begin next week.

Welch just participated in a conference call late this afternoon with Secretary Paulson and Federal Reserve Chairman Bernanke addressing the issue.